

Since I Do Pay for this service it is my right to recieve as much programming as XM delivers. This is just another case of high on the horse lobbists and policy makers trying to take away what hold dear, not only freedom, but my right to purchase anything I damn well please.